- * For all Arts Groups, artistic goals or creative mission is the production of arts and culture activities, which includes arts service providers that offer professional support to creatives

Awardee: An individual or organization that has been selected to receive funding through an AACME grant program. Also referred to as a "grantee." Awardees must meet program requirements and fulfill all contractual obligations, including reporting and promotion.

Capital Expenses (Non-Expendable): Money spent by a business or organization on acquiring or maintaining fixed assets such as equipment, instruments, etc. Any single capital expenditure over $2,000 must be pre-approved by the program staff administrator to ensure compliance with the grant agreement and City policy. Capital expenditures include, but are not limited to, the purchase, repair, or renovation of such equipment and property as speaker systems, theater seats, artwork, etc. These are examples and not an exhaustive list. Please contact your program administrator for further questions about specific expenses.

Capital Improvement Project - Bid Package: A complete set of formal estimates from a contractor, preservation architect, subcontractor, and vendors of a capital improvement project at historic sites. Each bid within the package should include the cost, description, timeframe, contracting roles, treatment method, and scope of work to be performed. Bids must specify materials and explain how the work complies with the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for the Treatment of Historic Properties.

Capital Improvement Project - Owner Authorization: Applicants must include a signed letter from the historic property owner granting permission for the proposed capital improvement project. Applications without this documentation are not considered for review.

Capital Improvement Project - Phased Work: Phased work divides a large project into smaller focused scopes of work.

City of Austin Council District: The City of Austin has ten single-member districts. To find which district an address is in, visit https://www.austintexas.gov/GIS/CouncilDistrictMap/ and click "I Want to..." then click "Find my Council District."

City of Austin Fiscal Year: The City of Austin Fiscal Year (FY) runs from October 1 through September 30 of the following year.

City of Austin Musician Pay Rate: As directed in Resolution No. 20230720-123, the pay rate for musicians for live City music performances is no less than $200 per musician for groups of up to six people; $150 per musician for groups between seven and ten people; and $1500 total for groups of musicians of ten or more.

City of Austin Recognized Cultural District / Corridor: See a list of City of Austin recognized Cultural Districts, as well as a map of City of Austin recognized Cultural Districts.

Collaborator/Collaboration: A contributor that has a share in the direction of the project or proposal. All collaborations must meet the minimum program eligibility, including years of operating history in Austin, meaning that the collaboration must have documented history of producing public activities for the minimum years required per program. For the purposes of the Arts and Culture grants all collaborators fall within the Arts Group (see definition) applicant type.

Commercial: A for-profit business that prioritizes the marketability, profitability, and overall success of a product or service, with a primary focus on marketing, sales, and revenue of a product or service.

Community Benefit: The opportunity for Austin residents, visitors, and tourists to access and actively engage in arts, music, heritage, and cultural activities, including experiences at historic sites, cultural spaces, and through works of public art that align with the goals of our program areas.

Creative Space: An establishment where arts/culture programming is the primary function. The location is publicly accessible and able to be rented by creative producers. The space may present one or more art forms including, but not limited to live music, dance, theater, visual art, film, museums, galleries etc. The operator of the space may be a for profit or a nonprofit entity.

Cultural and Heritage Tourism: The use of the performing and visual arts, festivals, architecture, historic places, and other phenomena that contribute to the cultural vitality of a city to attract tourists to a specific city/geographic region.

Double Dipping: Awardees are prohibited from using funds from multiple AACME grants to cover the same project expenses within a City of Austin fiscal year (October 1 – September 30). Each Grant Agreement dictates what expenses are allowed during the grant agreement term.

Emerging Artist: An individual in the early stage of their creative practice, with less than two years of experience producing or presenting artistic work in a public context. Emerging Artists may be self-taught, professionally trained, or newly entering the field and are still developing their audience, artistic identity, and body of work. For the purposes of AACME Funding, "emerging" artists must also have received no more than one prior AACME grant award.

Experience: Refers to an organization's, group's, or individual's history of producing creative work, managing programs or events, or engaging with audiences. Experience can include past projects, performances, exhibitions, workshops, cultural preservation work, or other efforts that demonstrate creative impact and community involvement. Experience may be continuous or may reflect periods of pause, change, or transition.

Extraterritorial Jurisdiction (ETJ): The unincorporated land that is contiguous to the corporate boundaries of Austin and is located within five miles of those boundaries. Austin's ETJ currently extends into 4 counties including Travis, Williamson, Hays, and Bastrop. To learn where the address is located, go to https://www.austintexas.gov/GIS/JurisdictionsWebMap/ and click "I Want to..." then click "Find my Jurisdiction".

Fiscal Sponsor: A Fiscal Sponsor is a nonprofit organization with a 501(c) tax-exempt status that applies for financial support on behalf of another organization or individual, allowing the sponsored project to benefit from the sponsor's tax-exempt status. A Fiscal Sponsor manages financial transactions and reporting responsibilities for the Sponsored Project. Please note that all Fiscal Sponsors must be headquartered in Austin and are responsible for ensuring that all funding is used for tax-exempt, charitable purposes as defined by the Internal Revenue Code. Additional information on Fiscal Sponsorship is available on the AACME website.

Heritage Tourism: People who travel to experience the places, artifacts, and activities that authentically represent the stories and people of the past and present (Definition from the National Trust for Historic Preservation).

High-Quality Programming: Programming that is thoughtfully created and deeply engaging emotionally, culturally, or intellectually for its intended audience. It reflects a well-defined artistic process, demonstrates clear intent, and shows a strong understanding of artistic influences and context.

Historic Preservation Fund: City of Austin budget fund sourced through Municipal Hotel Occupancy Tax revenues, which is the source of award funds for AACME facilitated Heritage Tourism funding programs.

Independent Promoter: Must meet all the following requirements:

- No more than 3 employees
- And, at least 2 years documentation showing that applicant has curated and promoted live shows featuring musicians and bands
- And, must not be contractually tied to one venue

Individual Artist: Person who creates, produces, or practices artistic disciplines as their primary form of creative expression. This includes, but is not limited to, visual artists, performing artists, writers, filmmakers, designers, and musicians. This includes individuals who operate their arts business as a sole proprietor.

Lead Applicant: The individual who submits the grant application and serves as the primary point of contact with AACME and its third-party administrators (e.g. Authorized Official / Executive Staff / Official Board of Trustees Executive Committee / Founder).

The "Lead Applicant" is the authorized signatory on the grant agreement and has legal authority to represent the applying organization or group. This individual is accountable for the accuracy of application materials, adherence to grant requirements, and compliance with all contractual obligations if funding is awarded.

- Nonprofit organizations, the "Lead Applicant" must be an authorized executive staff member, program director, or official listed on the organization's governance documents and have authority to sign grant agreements on the organization's behalf.
